

Instructions for Joining Example Site

eLearning has created an partially completed example site for the Fall 2020 semester that anyone is welcome to join and peruse. Within the example site, you will find:

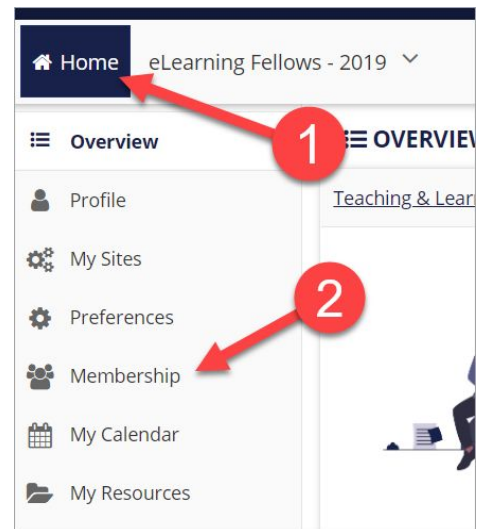

- A completed example of a Homepage
- A completed example of a flexible syllabus
- A completed example of a flexible schedule
- A completed example of an Introduction page
- A completed example of 3 weekly lessons
- An example quiz in Tests & Quizzes
- An example Assignment
- An example Forum
- Several example instructor videos*

Please note that the content within this example site is truly an example. What we have done may not match what you want to do for your courses, so please keep that in mind. You are welcome to use any example content from this site.

To join the example site and browse it, follow the steps below.

1. Log in to Isidore at isidore.udayton.edu.
2. On your Home page, click on the Membership tool (shown to the right).
3. Click on the Joinable Sites tab at the top of the page.
4. Click on the “Join” link underneath the “20_FA_FT_PHY_101 Example” site:

Worksite	Desc

Join

5. You will see a message saying that you are now a participant in the site.
6. Click on the Sites button in the top right corner.
7. Click on the “20_FA_FT_PHY_101 Example” to access the site. Click on the gray star next to the title to add it to your favorites bar in Isidore.
8. Feel free to post, submit, take quizzes - whatever you want.

*Actual astronomy information may be incorrect on this site. Example videos are likely a lot of nonsense. Please don't use for any actual astronomical purposes.
